

Exciting news for ANTA members

We have recently concluded a major re-negotiation of the terms and conditions applying to our Combined Liability Insurance facility for Complementary and Alternative Medicine and Massage Practitioners.

As a result of these re-negotiations, we are now delighted to advise you that the following improvements to the existing cover have been agreed with the Insurers.

These changes will apply to all new policies and renewals from the 1st April, 2007.

- All policies will now automatically provide $10 million Public Liability cover (lesser limits will still be available for Products Liability including Professional Risks)
- Cover will be available under the members policy for Locum Tenens up to 90 days per annum. This is subject to the Locum being properly qualified and not otherwise insured.
- There will be NO EXCESS, other than for claims in respect of Property in the Care, Custody or Control of the member (eg. damage to leased premises)
- Products Liability including Professional Risks is now available up to $10 million – previously the maximum limit was $5 million.

- Premium loadings for ALL Level 2 modalities have been removed. Therefore, if you practice any of the following modalities, you will enjoy substantial savings.

Biomesotherapy (saline injections)	Herbalism

Security and Savings

This is the 18th year that our facility has been underwritten by the same Insurers (although they have had several name changes). We can say with complete confidence that they have the experience and commitment, as do we, to ensuring the facility remains competitive whilst still providing a high quality product.

In addition to these major improvements to the policy coverage, we have also secured some significant premium reductions as illustrated by the following examples:
